

Annotations to the master thesis

1. Please staple or bind your master thesis; do not use tied hardcovers like ring or spiral binding
2. Do not use the seal of Heidelberg University
3. Submit three copies to the examination office during the usual opening hours
4. For better reading we recommend a line spacing of 1,5 lines
  - For the design and the content of the front page orientate yourself using the data file “MA-templates.zip”. The front page can be written in German or English.
  - Following the front page there should be a separate page for the two abstracts (in German and English). The abstracts should not exceed 200 words.
  - At the end of your thesis please provide a declaration that your thesis is written independently. Orientate yourself using the data file “deposition.tex”.
